

Female Power Shakti

Historically, a divergence arose between the male and female, causing an alienation of male and female energy and they were perceived as opposing forces.

The male and female are two faces of One energy. The male energy is the aspect that is outwardly focused. The male energy knows a strong creative force. The female energy is the energy of the inner aspect of things. It is the energy that is all encompassing. If both energies re-engage, a new reality would result, in which everything can be experienced, in joyful forms of manifestation.

The male energy has been in power for very long, and has been distorted deeply that the female energy was weakened and stopped realizing the integrity of her Being. As long as the male / female remain in conflict, the disintegration of both is inevitable. The female energy has arisen, and has begun the process of transforming the male energy into a balance and reunion of power.

Female Power Shakti is not intended to control, but rather help heal the male energy and assist in the rebirth, while empowering the female to assume her full role in the manifestation of the oneness.

A transformation of the personal is sought to allow one to see the Greater Wholeness of humanity.

Power in this sense is the energy that moves and harmonizes incompatible forces of male and female. It reconciles while avoiding control or domination, to complete the cycle of movement into the Whole Being. The shakti of change that is required at this time.

From Wikipedia:

Shakti from Sanskrit shak - is "to be able," meaning sacred force or empowerment, is the primordial cosmic energy and represents the dynamic forces that are thought to move through the entire universe. Shakti is the concept, or personification, of divine feminine creative power. On the earthly plane, Shakti most actively manifests through female embodiment and fertility, though it is also present in males in its potential, unmanifest form.

Not only is the Shakti responsible for creation, it is also the agent of all change. Shakti is cosmic existence as well as liberation.

Female Power Shakti seeks to heal the male energy within! The feminine energy is recovering and acquiring the strength to express itself fully and beautifully. The female qualities of intuition, sensitivity, connectedness, and compassion are being appreciated more and more, individually as well as collectively. As Jung put it; the female displays nurturing, wisdom, fertility, growth, and rebirth. These are the qualities of female power. Many of these are shared by the male, but deemed unimportant to emphasize superiority.

Thus the female must fully develop her qualities, including receptivity, understanding, perseverance that are lacked by many men, while allowing her male qualities of Doing, Firmness, Speaking, Thinking, Analysis to grow and mature as well. The opposite holds true for a male. The manifested power is absolute purity, self respect, pure love, concern for others and enlightened attention to give infinite joy and peace to humanity.

This system is infused with Heart Transmission; encompassing energy which moves through the space within for peace. It may or may not be felt but it would be working its effects steadily.
